

Technical Bulletin

WAX TRANSFER

Issued: August 21, 2009

Revision: May 1, 2023

In an effort to minimize scuffing to adjacent tiles during packaging and shipping, the Newpoint concrete tiles have a hot wax formulation often applied to the underside lugs of the roof tile profiles. Occasionally, the wax may transfer to the surface of some of the adjacent tiles. This condition is temporary and will weather away during normal weather cycles.

